DEMOCRATIC SPEAKING.

At Farmington and Bonne Terre on Thursday, September 18.

Hon. W. S. Cowberd of Kansas City, one of Missouri's best Congressmen and a speaker of rare gifts, will address the people at the Court House in Farmington at one o'clock in the afternoon on Thursday, September 18th, and at Bonne Terre in the evening on the same day at 8 o'clock Don't fail to hear him.

The safest and best way to protee the State'school and seminary funds i to make them as irreducible State obligation. They can't be stolen, misapplied or misused in that shape, and the public schools are assured of a liberal assistance from them.

Latter day Republicanism may be an improvement over that of 1865-70 but the Ziegenhein administration in St. Louis doesn't furnish much confirmation of the fact. The boodling, corruption and bribery of the leaders and men who ran the city muchine are pledged by its platform to the policy of direct legislation: that is, the people may demand that any act of the Legislature be submitted or referred to

The Baker Stock Show and Picnic.

EDITOR TIMES: Saturday the 6th lust., was a great day at the farm of G. N. Baker near Libertyville. To say the stock show and picnic were a success only half tells the tale. Early in the day people in baggies and wagone came from every direction to the beautiful walnut grove near his residence to enjoy themselves in an oldfashioned pionic. The ladies did themselves proud by spreading a sumptuous dinner, and a general invitation was extended to the large crowd nombering 800 or 1,000 good humored people, to help themselves. Refreshments of all kinds were on the gound, and good music was furni shed by the Phillips choir, which was greatly enjoyed.

Candidates representing both political parties were present, and were invited to adderss the people, which they did in a pleasant, gentlemanly way. Mayor George M. Wilson of Farmington, who "had no ax to grind" made one of his good, common sense talks to the people, which was well received and loudly applauded.

In the afternoon the stock show came on. Quite a number of young mules and horse colts from different parts of the county were on hand for sale and exhibition. Twelve or fifteen handsome young mules were placed in a paddock to contest for the $10 00 premium. Three judges were appointed-James Doss of Farmington, Ed Wilson of Cape Girardeau county and J. M. Matthews of Wayne county -who were practical farmers and good stockmen, and being strangers to everyone made most competent F. H and H. C. Best at 60c per cubic judges. Andrew Wallace of near Libertyville captured the $10.00 prize on the best mule colt, and Mr. Moran, near the same place, won the $7.00 prize on the best horse colt.

I understand that quite a goodly number of young stock was sold on the ground, as there were stockmen from the counties of Jefferson, Madison, Wayne, Cape Girardeau, Perry, James Pirtle of Fredericktown bought the premium mule of Mr. Wallace at $60.00, and several others at about the same price.
